14 Carat Mind
Tab Chords And Lyrics
By Gene Watson

Intro – Bm – G – D – A - D

D A7 D
I still recall the morning that I met you
G D
Standing out in front of Wilson's five and dime
A7 D
Staring through the window at the jewelry
E7 A
Hungry for the things you couldn't buy
D A7 D
Just like a fool I thought that I could please you
D7 G
I saw you had an eye for things that shine
D
I paid seven saw mill dollars for a bracelet
A7 D
Just to satisfy your fourteen carat mind.

Bm G
Layin' by these railroad tracks in Denver
D A7
With a hurtin' head and a half a pint of wine
Bm G
Everything except my soul has been surrendered
D A7 D
Just to satisfy your fourteen carat mind.

Break – Bm-G-D-A7-D
D A7 D
The cabin that I built in West Virginia
G D
Was not enough to keep you satisfied
A7 D
'Cause a man that's got a saw mill occupation
E7 A
Can't afford to feed a rich girls' appetite

     D                   A7                  D
I wonder if you're still with Willie Jackson
                          D7             G
Sometimes I wonder if he's still alive
                                          D
Ol' Willie he gave up his wife and children
                          A7                  D
Just to satisfy your fourteen carat mind.

Bm                                        G
Layin' by these railroad tracks in Denver
          D                                        A7
With a hurtin' head and a half a pint of wine
        Bm                                         G
Everything except my soul has been surrendered
          D                 A7                D
Just to satisfy your fourteen carat mind.
