I Heard You've Been Laying My Old Lady
Rusty WeIr

Intro - G

G C G
Well,Joe - I thought - we'd just sit down - and drink a beer
A7 D
I know you're wondering - 'why I called and asked you here
G G7 C A7
It's around - the town - you've been seein' Sue
G D G G7
So I called you here - to ask if it was true

C D G
I heard you been layin' my old lady
A7 D
Boy Joe - times must be gettin' tough - everywhere
C D G Gb F E
I heard you been layin 'my old lady
A D7 G
Well I like you Joe - but wives are hard to share

C G
Well Joe you know - ten long years - is a long,long time
A7 D
For being faithful - to just one - Ah Joe It'll mess your mind
G G7 C A7
Well, Joe, - you know - I've done my share - of runnin 'round
G D G
But I never knew - that you and Sue would put me down

C D G
I heard you been layin' my old lady
A7 D
Boy Joe - times must be gettin' tough - everywhere
C D G Gb F E
I heard you been layin 'my old lady
A D7 G
Well I like you Joe - but wives are hard to share

C G
Well Joe and I - we talked a bit - Lord I still don't understand
A7
How old Sue could do all those things to me - and go runnin' off and D
lovin' on another man
G G7 C A7
I thought it out - Now I can see - there's just one way to go
G D G
I guess I'll give Sue - and those snotty- nosed Kidd's to Joe

C D G
I heard you been layin' my old lady
A7 D
Boy Joe - times must be gettin' tough - everywhere
C D G Gb F E
I heard you been layin 'my old lady
A D7 G Gb F E
Well I like you Joe - but wives are hard to share
A D7 G D G
Well I like you Joe - but wives are hard to share