Old Wore Out Cowboy
Ed Bruce

Drop D Tuning (optional)
Intro - D-G-D …. A7-D

D G D
There must be someplace - for old wore out cowboys
A7 D
And broken down pickers - and dreamers like me
G D
Where the queue sticks are straight - and the beer's always cold
A7 D
And the jukebox is playing - Hank Williams for free

G D
I've worked in pool rooms - and bar rooms and bed rooms
A7 D
From Cheyenne to Memphis - there aint nothin new
G D
Hot bodied young cowgirls - too many state fair bulls
A7 D
I've rode em all - till I'm busted and bruised

Ch
Break - D-G-D … A-D

D G D
Now I picked my guitar - till my fingers blistered
A7 D
Bleedin and sweating - and staining my jeans
G D
They tried to whip me - but more didn't than did
A7 D
I'm proud of my dues - and god has six strings

Ch
A7 D
And they'll never stay home and they're always alone - even with someone they love
