Relatively Easy
Chords & Lyrics – By Jason Isbell

Capo 4th fret --- NOTE: song has variations on D and G (in video lesson)
Intro – D-G-D-G

D G
Are you having a long day - Everyone you meet rubs you the wrong way
D
Dirty city streets smell like an ashtray
G
Morning bells are ringing in your ears
D
Is your brother on a church kick
G
Seems like just a different kind of dopesick
D
Better off to teach a dog a card trick
G
Than try to have a point and make it clear

Bm A G D/Gb Em
You should know, compared to people on a global scale our kind has
D/Gb G
had it relatively easy
Bm A G D/Gb
And here with you there's always something to look forward to

Em D/Gb G D G
My angry heart beats relatively easy

D G
I lost a good friend - At Christmastime when folks go off the deep end
D
His woman took the kids and he took Klonopin
G
Enough to kill a man of twice his size
Bm
Not for me to understand
G
Remember him when he was still a proud man
Bm
A vandal's smile, a baseball in his right hand
G
Nothing but the blue sky in his eyes

Bm A G D/Gb
Still, compared to those a stones-throw away from you
Em D/Gb G
Our lives have both been relatively easy
Bm A G D/Gb
Take a year and make a break there ain't that much at stake
Em D/Gb G
The answers could be relatively easy

Break – D-G-D-G

Em D/Gb G
Watch that lucky man walk to work again
D A7sus A7
He may not have a friend left in the world
Em D/Gb G
See him walking home again to sleep alone
D A7sus A7 A7sus A7
I step into a shop - to buy a postcard for a girl

D G
I broke the law, boys - Shooting out the windows of my loft, boys
D
When they picked me up I made a big noise
G
Everything to blame except my mind

Bm A G D/Gb Em
I should say, I keep your picture with me every day the evenings now
D/Gb G
are relatively easy
Bm A G D/Gb
Here with you there's always something to look forward to
Em D/Gb G
My angry heart beats relatively easy
Em D/Gb G D G D
My lonely heart beats relatively easy
