By The Association

Intro – Am-D ... Am-D6-Am7-D6

Am D6 Am7 D6
Every time I think that I'm the only one who's lonely someone calls on me
Am D6

And every now and then I spend my time in rhyme and verse and curse
Am7 D6
those faults in me
E

And then along comes Mary - And does she want to give me kicks and be my
A D G steady chick and give me pick of memories

B E A E B
Or maybe rather gather tales of all the fails and tribulations
E A Dm Em Fmaj7

No one ever sees --- When we met I was sure out to lunch
D ... Am-D6-Am7-D6

Now my empty cup tastes as sweet as the punch
Am D6

When vague desire is the fire in the eyes of chicks whose sickness is the Am7 D6 Am D6
games they play -- And when the masquerade is played and neighbor folks
Am7 D6
make jokes as who is most to blame today
E

And then along comes Mary - And does she want to set them free and let them see reality from where she got her name
A D G

B E A E B
And will they struggle much when told that such a tender touch as hers
E A

Will make them not the same
Dm Em Fmaj7

When we met I was sure out to lunch
D ... Am-D6-Am7-D6

Now my empty cup tastes as sweet as the punch
Am-D

Am D6
And when the morning of the warning's passed, the gassed and flaccid kids
Am7 D6
are flung across the stars.

Am D6
The psychodramas and the traumas gone the songs are left unsung and Am7 D6
hung upon the scars

E
And then along comes Mary
And does she want to see the stains the dead remains of all the pains she
A D G

B E A E A
Or will their waking eyes reflect the lies and make them realize their urgent
B A cry -- for sight no more

Dm Em Fmaj7
When we met I was sure out to lunch
D

Now my empty cup tastes as sweet as the punch
Am D6 Am D6
.....Sweet as the punch (x4)
