

And It's Still Alright

Nathaniel Rateliff

Capo 3rd fret = original key

Intro - C

Am F C

It ain't alright - the hardness of my head

Am F

Now, close your eyes - and spin around say

G C G C G C F

Hard times you could find it - ain't the way that you want it

C

But it's still alright

Am F C

Late at night - do you lay around wondering?

Am F

Counting all the lines ain't so funny now say

G C G C G C F

Times are hard, you get this far, but it - ain't the way that you want it

G C G C G C F

I'll be damned if this old man don't - start to count on his losses

C

But it's still alright

G C

They say you learn a lot out there - How to scorch and burn

G C

Only have to bury your friends - Then you'll find it gets worse

G C

Standing out on the ledge - With no way to get down

G F C

You start praying for wings to grow - Oh baby just let go

Break --- Am-F-C ... x4

Am F C

I ain't alright - you keep spinning out ahead

Am F
It was cold outside - when I hit the ground said
G C G C G C F
I could sleep here, forget all the fear - it will take time to grow
C
Maybe I don't know

Am F C
Hey tonight - if you think about it
Am F
Remembering all the times - that you pointed out say
G C G C G C F
The glass is clear but all this fear - starts a-leaving a mark
G C G C G C F
Your idle hands are all that stands from your time in the dark
C
But it's still alright
