

A Tornado Warning

Turnpike Troubadours

Intro - Am-C .. Am-C .. G

Am F C Am F C
We were sitting on the front porch - with the weather rolling in

Am Em F C
Laughing louder than the big south wind

Am F C Am F C
You ran out to roll your window up - light rain falling in your hair

Am Em F G
Your tan legs checkered from a folding chair

Am F C Am F C
There's country music in the kitchen - I hear it singing through the screen

Am Em F G
Weather warnings in between

Am F C Am F C
Glad you got out of the city - there's no telling what's in store

Am Em F G
Along the 35 Corridor

Am Em F C Am Em F C
Kerosene to feed the flame - Your effect is quite the same

Am G F C Am Em F C
Shadows dancing on the wall and - Waiting for the sky to fall

Break - Am-C ... Am-C

Am F C Am F C
Couldn't ask for better weather - You were sailing with a grin

Am Em F C
Until the sound of hailstone hitting tin

Am F C Am F C
It's loud enough you gotta yell now - The whole thing hits me like a song

Am Em F G
A pretty one that won't last long

Am Em F C Am Em F C
Kerosene to feed the flame - Your effect is quite the same
Am G F C Am Em F C
Shadows dancing on the wall and - Waiting for the sky to fall
Am Em F C G
Waiting for the sky to fall

Break - Am-C-..Am-C .. Am C-Am C

F C G
Yeah in the broken morning light - that simple shade of blue
Am Em F G
The kind that always follow you
