

Blue Side Of The Grey Tab Chords And Lyrics By Atlanta

Intro – D-D/E-D-D/E

D A/Db G A7
He came into this world the help of a midwife a teenage gir

D
One Sunday morning

A/Db
And when they layed him down at his mamas breast

G A7 D
She smiled when she felt that small heart beating in his chest

G
And when they told his papa John, they said John you got a healthy son

D A7
Everyone on the mountain, could hear John shoutin, he was sayin

D G A7
Thank God good God Almighty I got me a boy

D
And I'm never gonna let him down

G A7
And he said thank God good God Almighty I thank you for my country

D D/E D D/E D
I thank you for my newborn son

D A/Db
She dreamed of the thing the child could be

G A7 D
Here in this land of liberty --came changes

A/Db
Strong like a tree the young man grew

G A7 D
He studied for the work he hoped some day would find him

G
He may be a president

D
He may be that one who could lead us all through tomorrow

A7
When times turn to sorrow

C G
Bugles rang on both sides of the river

D D7 G
Those troubled times had tore apart our land
C G
And when the guns of war cried out like distant thunder
A7 D D7
Pride came by and took him by the hand
G D/Gb Em
And it lead him to a place--we know as Shiloh
D D7
For years it saw rivers all run red
G G7 C
He might have been that one, to lead us through tomorrow
D D7 G
Now we'll never hear a single word he said
G7 C D D7 G D
Has anybody seen him here this morning, has anybody seen him here today
G G7 C
Guess we lost him with -10,000 sons of freedom
D D7 G
They're sleepin; on the blue side of the grey
G7 C
Guess we lost him with 10,000 sons of freedom
D D7 G G7 C G Em D D7
Left them sleepin on the blue side of the grey
G G7 C C G Gbm B7 Em C
Glory,glory hallelujah--Glory,glory hallelujah-glory,glory hallelujah
Am D G A+ Db G
His truth is marching on