I thought it was forever, I thought it would last
I gotta try to make it - a page of my past

You didn't even say goodbye

When you slammed that door

Now, I'm lyin' here alone in what once was our bed
Tryin' to forget all the cruel words you said

Can't keep a good man down, baby

Can't keep a good man down

Gonna dress up in the finest clothes that I own
And take it to the streets, I won't be lonely for long

I'm gonna put on my best moves

On every single woman I see

Now, you thought you could break me
Add me to your list, notch me on your gun
Let me tell you this

I got news for you, baby - I don't break that easily

This world's gonna see me smilin' again

I'm takin' some time to erase you from my memory

Don't knock on my door 'cause to you I'm not at home
