

Chasin That Neon Rainbow

Alan Jackson

Intro - G

G C
Daddy won a radio - and tuned it to a country show
D C D
I was rockin' in the cradle to the cryin' of a steel guitar
G C
Mama used to sing to me - she taught me that sweet harmony
D C G
Now she worries 'cause she never thought I'd ever really take it this far
D
Singin' in the bars and

G C G
Chasin' that neon rainbow - livin' that honky tonk dream
D/Gb Em A7 D
'Cause all I've ever wanted, is to pick this guitar and sing
C G C A7
Just tryin' to be somebody, just wanna be heard and seen
C D G C A7 D G
I'm chasin' that neon rainbow, livin' that honky tonk dream

Break - C-D-G-D-A7-D-G

C
An atlas and a coffee cup, five pickers in an old Dodge truck
D C D
Headin' down to Houston for a show on Saturday night
G C
This overhead is killin' me, half the time I sing for free
D C G
But when the crowd's into it Lord it makes this thing I'm doing seem right
D
Standin' in the spotlight

G C G
Chasin' that neon rainbow - livin' that honky tonk dream

D/Gb Em A7 D
'Cause all I've ever wanted, is to pick this guitar and sing
C G C A7
Just tryin' to be somebody, just wanna be heard and seen
C D G C A7 D G E7
I'm chasin' that neon rainbow, livin' that honky tonk dream

A D
Daddy's got a radio, he won it thirty years ago
E D E
He said "Son I just know we're gonna hear you singin' on it someday"
A D
I made it up to Music Row, but Lordy don't the wheels turn slow
E D A
Still I wouldn't take a minute and I wouldn't have it any other way
E
Just show me to the stage

A D A
Chasin' that neon rainbow - livin' that honky tonk dream
A/Ab Gbm B7 E
'Cause all I've ever wanted, is to pick this guitar and sing
D A D B7
Just tryin' to be somebody, just wanna be heard and seen
D E A D B7 E A
I'm chasin' that neon rainbow, livin' that honky tonk dream
D E A D B7 E A
I'm chasin' that neon rainbow, livin' that honky tonk dream