Chords & Lyrics

By Jessie Watson

Intro – D-G-D-G (drop D Tuning)

Well she's a two stack mack with a bunk in the back and she's chrome from head to toe
She's got a screaming cat that won't hold back so hammer down boys let'er go
She's a lady of the night with her chicken lights I guess a couple hundred or so
I get lost in the lines and the way she whines to that XM radio

Well hey Mr. DJ play me a song - One about truckin all night long
I gotta girl she's a waitin at home for me
This ole rig she sure is fast - spinnin the signs as she rolls past
A long haul trucker is all I'll ever be

Chicken Lights & Chrome - hell I'm headed home
You can see us comin from a million miles away
She lights up the sky - like the 4th of July
Truckers favorite song's Alabama's Roll On and Chicken Lights & Chrome

She's lipstick red man she'll knock'em dead as she rolls through the scales
She'll make the black smoke roll when I pour on the coal as she's blazing up a trail
You can bet all eyes out on 65 will have to shade from the shine
There's no where to hide she's to damn bright she's burning up the night
