

Closing Time

By Radney Foster

Capo on 3rd fret

Intro - G

G C G
Every afternoon at five o'clock - I forget all about you

C D G6
There ain't nothin' 'bout this honky-tonk - To remind me we're through

C D G
And I can put off going back - To that ol' empty house you swore you'd never leave

Am D G
From the loneliness you handed me - I can get a brief reprieve

C D G
From here until closing time - It won't matter you're gone

D dim Am D
I can fill up my emptiness - Maybe make it on my own

C D G Em
From now til they lock the doors - Put the chairs up - and sweep the floors

Am D C G D
You won't even cross my mind ----- From here until closing time

G C G
Well the good old days are good and gone - Since you left without me

C D G6
If I could figure out where we went wrong - Then maybe I'd be free

C D G
From these ties that bind my foolish heart - And just won't let me start my life again

Am D G
Then I wouldn't need this lonesome bar - Where I come to pretend

C D G
From here until closing time - It won't matter you're gone

D dim Am D
Your memory won't break my heart - I can make it on my own

C D G Em
From now til they lock the doors - Put the chairs up - and sweep the floors
 Am D C G D
You won't even cross my mind ----- From here until closing time
