

Danny Boy

Elvis Presley

Capo 3rd fret (optional)

A Amaj7 A7 D Dm
O Danny Boy - the pipes - the pipes are calling
A Gbm B7 E
From glen to glen - and down the mountainside
A Amaj7 A7 D Dm
The summer's gone - and all the roses dying
A Gbm Bm E A
'Tis you, 'tis you - must go - and I must bide

E A D A
But come ye back when summer's - in the meadow
Gbm D A B7 E
Or when the valley's hushed - and white - with snow
A D A Gbm
And I'll be here in sunshine - or in shadow
Dm A Gbm Bm E A
O Danny Boy - O Danny Boy, I love you so

A Amaj7 A7 D Dm
But if you come - and all the roses are dying
A Gbm B7 E
And I am dead - as dead - I well may be
A Amaj7 A7 D Dm
You'll come and find - the place - where I am lying
A Gbm Bm E A
And kneel and say - an "Ave" there - for me

E A D A
And I shall feel how soft - you tread above me
Gbm D A B7 E
And then the grave will richer - sweeter be
A D A Gbm
For you will bend and tell me - that you love me
Dm A Gbm Bm E A D E A
And I shall rest in peace until you come - to - me
