

Distantly In Love

Jimmy Buffett

Intro - D-A7-D

D                    G                    A7                    D
Payphones all were ringing as the crowd went roarin' by

                  G                    A7                    D
Lovely dancers swayin' to an - island lullaby

                  G                    A7                    D
Beside the southern ocean taking stock - of what's to be

                  G                    A7                    D
Writing you this letter that you'll - probably never see

          G D/Gb A7                    G    D/Gb    A7
But I can't help but be - ruled by inconsistencies

G    D/Gb            A7            D
Not unique just distantly in love

                  G                    A7                    D
Tried to phone from Paris thinking things could be arranged

                  G                    A7                    D
Me and you would rendezvous but I found your number changed

                  G                    A7                    D
So I drove to San Remo where the crazy painter dwells

                  G                    A7                    D
Toasted our old photograph still up there on his shelf

          G D/Gb A7                    G    D/Gb    A7
But I can't help but be - Ruled by my antiquities

G    D/Gb            A7            D
Not unique just distantly in love

Break - D-G-A7-D .... D-G-A7-D

Gbm            G                    Gbm            G
I can't be the one to fill - Your times and all your places

Gbm            G                    E                    A
I can't be the one to fill - Your blanks and empty spaces

D G A7 D
I heard it from a friend of ours I saw - in Timber Bay
G A7 D
You had a new lover who had - stolen you away
G A7 D
That could be the reason that I - never got in touch
G A7 D
May present slight problems if he - loves you half as much

G D/Gb A7 G D/Gb A7
As I who can't help but be - Ruled by my antiquities
G D/Gb A7 D
Not unique just distantly in love

G D/Gb A7 G D/Gb A7
You know I can't help but be - Part of my own philosophies
G D/Gb A7 D
Not unique just distantly in love
