

Driving Scullion

Capo 2nd fret

Intro - Am

The sun is going down and I'm driving into town
Some cars got their lights on and some of them come on dim

G Am
The driver is a thinker but a drinker when he drives
E F Am
And I'm always coming back, why why - I just don't know

There 's cranes and strange affections, and clouds hanging grey
In the corner of my eye I see the red city sky

G Am
The taxi that I'm sittin in is ticking in and out of time
E F
And I'm always coming back, why why - I just don't know

Abmaj7 Abm F
And we crawl and we crawl - through the broken streets of stone
Abmaj7 Abm F G
Send your soul somewhere else - as you dream, on the bus

Break - Am - Dm ... Am ... Dm .... Am

And when you walk with mother earth, you hold her hand so tight
I've got business in the city now, but never very much

G Am
In the corner of my eye I see the red city sky
E F Am
And I'm always coming back, why why - I just don't know

Dm Am
And the sun is going down, and I'm driving into town
Dm Am
And I'm driving into town, and the sun is going down
