

Dublin Blues

Chords & Lyrics – Guy Clark

Drop D Tuning

Intro – D-G-D-A-D-G-D

I wish I was in Austin - um-um - In the Chili Parlour Bar

Drinkin' Mad Dog Margaritas - And not carin' where you are

But here I sit in Dublin -um-um - Just rollin' cigarettes

Holdin' back and chokin' back the shakes with every breath

Forgive me all my anger - Forgive me all my faults

There's no need to forgive me - For thinkin' what I thought

I loved you from the git go and I'll love you till I die

I loved you on the Spanish steps the day you said goodbye

I am just a poor boy -um-um- Work's my middle name

If money was a reason well I would not be the same

I'll stand up and be counted --- um-um -I'll face up to the truth

I'll walk away from trouble - But I can't walk away from you

A D
Forgive me all my anger - Forgive me all my faults
A D
There's no need to forgive me - For thinkin' what I thought
A D
I loved you from the git go and I'll love you till I die
A G D
I loved you on the Spanish steps the day you said goodbye

Intro – D-G-D-A-D-G-D (x2)

G D A
I have been to Fort Worth -um-um- I have been to Spain
D G D
I have been to proud to come in out of the rain
G D A
I have seen the David - um - um - I've seen the Mona Lisa too
D G D
I have heard Doc Watson play Columbus Stockade Blues

A D
Forgive me all my anger - Forgive me all my faults
A D
There's no need to forgive me - For thinkin' what I thought
A D
I loved you from the git go and I'll love you till I die
A G D
I loved you on the Spanish steps the day you said goodbye

G D A
I wish I was in Austin - um-um - In the Chili Parlour Bar
D G D
Drinkin' Mad Dog Margaritas - And not carin' where you are