

Roll The Dice Lyrics And Tab (By Delbert McClinton)

Capo on the 2nd fret Intro G-C-D-G

D G C
She's got a roof that don't leak, when the rain's pouring down

D G
She's got a place I can sleep, where I'm safe and sound

D G C
She's got a lock on her door, but she gave me a key

D G
She don't walk the floor, oh, but she worries about me

C D
Her love has no strings, shackles or chains but

Em C C7 G
I'm holding on for dear life, she's like a rolling seven

D G
Every time I roll the dice

D G C
She's got a big Oldsmobile, she's got a dog that don't bite

D G
She's got a heart I can steal, just like a thief in the night

D G C
She's got a slow burning fire, she keeps her radio low

D G
When she gets inspired, we let the good times roll

C D
Her love has no strings, shackles or chains but

Em C C7 G
I'm holding on for dear life, she's like a rolling seven

D G D
Every time I roll the dice

Break - G - C - D - G - D - G - C - D - G

C D
Her love has no strings, shackles or chains but

Em C C7 G
I'm holding on for dear life, she's like a rolling seven

D G D
Every time I roll the dice

G C D G D
Every time I roll - every time I roll , every time I roll , every time I roll the dice

G C D G
Every time I roll - every time I roll , every time I roll , every time I roll the dice
