

Flesh And Blood Chords And Lyrics

C F C C7
Beside a singin' mountain stream, where the willow grew
F C D7 G
Where the silver leaf of maple, sparkled in the mornin' dew
C F C
I braided twigs of willows, made a string of buckeye beads
F C F C
But flesh and blood need flesh and blood, and you're the one I need
F C F C
Flesh and blood need flesh and blood, and you're the one I need

F C C7
I leaned against a bark of birch, and I breathed the honey dew
F C D7 G
I saw a north-bound flock of geese, against a sky of baby blue
C F C
Beside the lily pads, I carved a whistle from a reed
F C F C
Mother Nature's quite a lady, but you're the one I need
F C F C
But flesh and blood need flesh and blood, and you're the one I need

F C
A cardinal sang just for me, and I thanked him for the song
F C D7 G
Then the sun went slowly down the west, and I had to move along
C F C
These were some of the things, on which my mind and spirit feed
F C F C
But flesh and blood need flesh and blood, and you're the one I need
F C F C
Flesh and blood need flesh and blood, and you're the one I need

F C C7
So when this day was ended, I was still not satisfied
F C D7 G
For I knew ev'rything I touched, would wither and would die

<http://www.learn-classic-rock-songs.com>

Demo page located at

http://www.learn-classic-rock-songs.com/top_classic_rock_songs.html

 C F C
And love is all that will remain, and grow from all these seed;

 F C F C
Mother Nature's quite a Lady, but you're the one I need

 F C F C G C
Flesh and blood need flesh and blood, and you're the one I need

<http://www.learn-classic-rock-songs.com>

Demo page located at

http://www.learn-classic-rock-songs.com/top_classic_rock_songs.html