

For The Summer Chords And Lyrics By Ray Lamontagne

Capo on 3rd fret (optional)

Intro – A-Em....A-Em

A Em G D A Em G D
Rollin' through these hills I've known I'd be comin'
A Em G D A Em G D
Ain't a man alive - that likes to be alone?
A Em G D A Em G D
Been a while since I seen my lady smilin'
A Em G D A Em G D
Have I been, have I been away so long?
G D G D
I am tired - I am tired

A Em
Can I come home – for the summer?
D Cmaj7
I could slow down - for a little while
A Em
Get back to loving each other
D Cmaj7
Leave all those long - and lonesome miles - behind

A-Em-G-D ... A-Em-G-D

A Em G
Through the years I have learned
D A Em G D
Some things worth the tellin'

A Em G
And you'd be right in guessin'
D A Em G D
That each and every lesson - they were hard won
G D G D
I am tired - I am tired

A Em
Can I come home - for the summer?
D Cmaj7
I could slow down - for a little while
A Em
Get back to loving each other
D Cmaj7
Leave all those long - and lonesome miles - behind

Break - A-Em-G-D (x4)

A Em A Em A
You'll follow her - wherever she goes
Em G C A
You love her and - you just wanted to know
Em A Em A
That you'll follow her - you'll find a way
Em G C A
'Cause you love her and - you just wanted to know
