Chords And Lyrics
By Chet Atkins

Capo 2nd fret

Intro – D-G-D-G

D
Do you remember in the fairy tale?
Daug G
How the wicked witches spell - changed the handsome prince to a toad
Em

A7 A7aug
Thru the power of her potion - she handed him the notion

D G D
That he was lower than the dirt in the road
B7
And thou she left him green and warted - her evil plan was thwarted

Em B7 Em
When there chanced to happen by a young miss
E7
Who in spite of his complexion - offered her affection
A7
And broke the wicked curse with her kiss

Well if you've never been a frog kissin
A7aug D B7
Then you don't know what you've been missing
E7 A7 D G D
There's a world of opportunity under each and every log
A7
If you've never been a charm breaker

And if you've never been a handsome prince maker
     E7                              A7                                 D  G  D
Just a slow down turn around bend down and kiss you a frog

D                                Daug
Once upon a time ago - I was down and feelin low
G                                   Em
Like a lonely frog in a pond
A7                                        A7aug
Life was just a joke - And I was very near a crokin
    D                         G               D
I was zapped by life's wicked wand
       B7
Then in the depth's of my depression
                      Em               B7              Em
There came a true expression - From a love from a lady so sweet
          E7
She gave warm fuzzy feelings - Feelings that were healing
                                A7
And knocked me of my little web feet

Well if you've never been a frog kissin
A7aug                         D                  B7
Then you don't know what you've been missing
     E7                              A7                                 D  G  D
There's a world of opportunity under each and every log
       A7
If you've never been a charm breaker
A7aug                      D             B7
And if you've never been a handsome prince maker
     E7                              A7                                 D  G  D
Just a slow down turn around bend down and kiss you a frog
