Drop D Tuning

D

A Doo da doo doo doo, a doo da doo doo doo

Who is the girl wearin' nothin' but a smile and a towel

In the picture on the billboard in a field near the big old highway Rollin' down the highway in my Jimmy, haulin' freight from

Chicago to St Louis, Lord, I see her every day

A double clutchin' weasel like me can hardly ever get a girl to look at him that way

G

D

Like the girl wearin' nothin' but a smile and a towel

In the picture on the billboard in the field near the big old

highway

Wow, what a girl wearin' nothin' but a smile and a towel

highway

I bet it wouldn't take her very long to be gone if someone would

pull a dirty trick & take her towel away

I'd slow my Jimmy down to 20 that's how many wrecks I see

G
there every day

D
Caused by the girl wearin' nothin' but a smile and a towel

And I guess I'm gettin' bolder 'cause I'd rather kiss and hold her

than just keep lookin' at her every day

At 4:45, coffee-drinkin', eatin' time Jimmy shimmied, while I

woke up the artist that painted the display

Of the girl wearin' nothin' but a smile and a towel

Sleepy headed, painter said the girl wasn't real and I better get –

On Route 66 from the billboard to Chicago You'll find tiny pieces
