

Good Directions

Billy Currington

Original Key = Capo 1st fret - optional

Intro - E-Abm-A-B7-E-B7

E

I was sittin' there - sellin' turnips on a flatbed truck

Abm

Crunchin' on a pork rind when she pulled up

A

B7

Dbm

A

She had to be thinkin' this is where rednecks come from

B7 E

She had Hollywood written on her license plate

Abm

She was lost and lookin' for the interstate

A

B7

E

Needin' directions, and I was the man for the job

A

B7

I told her way up yonder past the caution light

A

B7

There's a little country store with an old Coke sign

A

B7

Dbm

You gotta stop in and ask Miss Bell for some of her sweet tea

B A

Gbm

Then a left will take you to the interstate

A

B7

E

B7

But a right will bring you right back here to me

E

I was sittin' there -- thinkin' 'bout her pretty face

Abm

Kickin' myself for not catchin' her name

A B7 Dbm A

I threw my hat and thought, 'you fool, that it coulda been love

B7 E Abm

I knew my old Ford couldn't run her down - She probably didn't like me anyhow

A B7 E

So I watched her disappear into a cloud of dust

A B7

I told her way up yonder past the caution light

A B7

There's a little country store with an old Coke sign

A B7 Dbm

You gotta stop in and ask Miss Bell for some of her sweet tea

B A Gbm

Then a left will take you to the interstate

A B7 E

But a right will bring you right back here to me

A B7

Is this Georgia heat playin' tricks on me

E Dbm

Or am I really seein' what I think I see?

A B7 A

The woman of my dreams comin' back to me

Break - E-Abm-A-B7-E

A B7

She went way up yonder past the caution light

A B7

Don't know why, but somethin' felt right

A B7 Dbm

When she stopped in and asked Miss Bell for some of her sweet tea

B A B7 E
Mama gave her a big 'ol glass and sent her right back here to me
A B7 E7
Thank God for good directions...and turnip greens