I'm amazed - I'm standing here today

                                 G                      C
After all the trials - that's come my way

                         F                      A+                      F
But through it all the Lord's been good - to me

A+    F                      C                      F
And I'm here today - for the world to see

                                 A+                      F
Here's a miracle right - before - your eyes

   G                      C
And for the child of God it should be - no surprise

                         F                      A+                      F
I was down so low I thought I'd...I'd never rise

A+    F                      C                      F    C    F    D7
But here's a miracle - right - before your eyes

G    C                      G
God won't change but He'll change the lives of men

   A7                      D
With shattered dreams and broken hearts - within

                         G                      C                      G
You'll regain the courage that - you've lost

                         C                      G                      D                      G
And there's no river that - your - 2 feet can't cross
