

I Need A Little Time Off For Bad Behavior

Tab Chords And Lyrics

By David Allan Coe

Capo 3rd fret – Drop D tuning

                  D                  G
I need a little time off for bad behavior

                  F                  D
Devil in me done been asleep too long

                                  G
I need a little time off for bad behavior

          A+                  C                  D
It looks like I been too good for too long

  G                                  D
I'm up and gone at the break of dawn - I've been workin' like a regular dog

  A                                  D
To keep the woman and the lights and the water and the phone turned on

  G                                  D
I've been sayin' 'Yes sir' all day at work I've been sayin' 'Yes maam' at home

  A                                  D
Been storin' up the cuss words keepin' 'em under my tongue

                  D                  G
I need a little time off for bad behavior

                  F                  D
Devil in me done been asleep too long

                                  G
I need a little time off for bad behavior

          A+                  C                  D
It looks like I been too good for too long

  G                                  D
I have this number on my mind a while I been fightin' off the urge to call

  A                                  D
Pretty little strawberry blonde With a Southern drawl

  G                                  D
Some good old boys from Alabama said the fishin' been missin' me

  A                                  D
And I need to renew my friendship with Jim Beam

D                  G
I need a little time off for bad behavior
                  F                  D
Devil in me done been asleep too long
                                  G
I need a little time off for bad behavior
  A+                  C                  D
It looks like I been too good for too long

                  D                  G
I need a little time off for bad behavior
                  F                  D
Devil in me done been asleep too long
                                  G
I need a little time off for bad behavior
  A+                  C                  D
It looks like I been too good for too long

  A+                  C                  D
It looks like I been too good for too long
  A+                  C                  D
It looks like I been too good for too long
  A+                  C                  D
It looks like I been too good for too long