Intro - D-G-A-G (x4)

D A/Db Bm Bm/A
If heaven was an hour - it would be twilight

When the fireflies start their dancing on the lawn
D A/Db Bm Bm/A
And supper's on the stove - and mama's laughing
G A7sus A7
And everybody's working day is done

D A/Db Bm Bm/A
If heaven was a town, it would be my town
G D A7
Oh on a summer day - in 1985
D A/Db Bm Bm/A
And everything I wanted - is out there waiting
G A7 D A/Db
And everyone I loved is still alive

Bm A G D A/Db
Don't cry a tear for me now, baby
Bm A G A7
There comes a time - we all must say goodbye
D A/Db Bm G
And if that's what heaven's made of you know I
D A7 D G A G D G A G
I ain't afraid to die

D A/Db Bm Bm/A
If heaven was a pie- it would be cherry
G D A7
So cool and sweet - and heavy on the tongue
D A/Db Bm Bm/A
And just one bite - would satisfy your hunger

G A7sus A7
And there'd always be enough - for everyone

D A/Db Bm Bm/A
If heaven was a train, it sure would be a fast one

G D A7
That could take this weary traveler 'round the bend

D A/Db Bm Bm/A
If heaven was a tear, it'd be my last one

G A7 D
And you'd be in my arms again

Bm A G D A/Db
Don't cry a tear for me now, baby

Bm A G A7
There comes a time - we all must say goodbye

D A/Db Bm G
And if that's what heaven's made of you know I

D A7 D G
I ain't afraid to die

D A/Db Bm G
And if that's what heaven's made of you know I

I ain't afraid to die
