What didn't know back then - Was that I might be crying

D G
It is such a simple sentiment - To steal the show

C
And what I didn't know back then - Is that I might be losing you

D G
I might be losing you - And still I wouldn't know

C
And now I suck up to the pale moonlight - Like it's gonna lead me home

D G
And I shiver in my tired clothes - As if that could keep me warm

C
And now I stare across the dirty river - and ill breathe this dirty air

D G
And I'm sure upon this bridge I'll see you - 'Cause I dreamt I'd kiss you up there

D G
Yeah I might be needing you - The need it doesn't end

C
And now I stare across the dirty river - And I breathe this dirty air

D G
And I'm sure upon the bridge I'll see you - 'Cause I dreamt I'd kiss you there
