

G  A7
And you wont leave soon because I know

          D/gb                                  G      D/Gb
Your just like me with no place to go

          G  A7
Theres a love still here no nothings died

          D/Gb                          G  A7sus
It just got hurt very deep inside

G  D/Gb
This aint Hollywood - Never really gets that good

                                  Em7                                  G                                  A7sus
Call it love if you think you should - And no need to explain