

July In Cheyenne - Aaron Watson

Capo 4th fret

Intro - C

C Am
 In the rain and the mud in July in Cheyenne
 G F
 They had to carry away that brave young man
 C Am
 A little part of every heart of every rodeo fan
 G F
 Died there in the rain and the mud in July in Cheyenne

C Am
 Lookin' back it doesn't seem so long ago
 G F
 He was bigger than life God rest his soul
 C Am
 Why he died that day is hard to understand
 G F
 Right there in the rain and the mud in July in Cheyenne

G F
 So tip your hat to the cowboy every once in a while
 C Am
 And take time to remember that cowboy's smile
 G F
 A little part of every heart of every rodeo fan
 C Am G
 Died there in the rain and the mud in July in Cheyenne

Break - C-Am-G-F ,, C-Am-G-F

C Am
 No buckles on a shelf collecting dust
 G Fmaj7
 Still his memory shines inside of all of us
 C Am
 Some miss their hero, some miss their friend
 G F
 His mom and daddy long to see their little boy again
 G F
 So tip your hat to the cowboy every once in a while
 C Am
 And take time to remember that cowboy's smile
 G F
 A little part of every heart of every rodeo fan
 C Am G
 Died there in the rain and the mud in July in Cheyenne
 C Am
 In the rain and the mud in July in Cheyenne
 G F
 They had to carry away that brave young man
 C Am
 If your washed in the blood someday you'll see him again
 G Cmaj7
 And it won't be in the rain and the mud in July in Cheyenne