

Letter To My Daughters

Chords & Lyrics – Uncle Kracker

Intro – D-A-D

D G D
I'm sending this letter - I'll mail it today

A
There's so many things I've been wanting to say

G D
Your mom sent some pictures - And my how you've grown

A D
Rock n roll fathers are never at home

G D
I'm writing this letter - I made you a song

A G
I promised your mom that I'd write while I'm gone you say daddy come home

D A D
Well you'll just have to wait - I hope when I get there that it won't be too late

G D A
Skylar I just missed your first step today - I have no excuses and nothing to say

G D
I live on a bus - with a rock n roll band

A D
I hope when your older that you'll understand

G D
I'm coming home soon - This tour's almost through

A G
I promise I'll try to spend more time with you You say daddy come home

D A D A D
You'll just have to wait - I hope when I get there that it won't be too late

G D
Now Madison Blue you know I love you too

A
Not a single day passes that I don't think of you

G D
I'm running on empty and a mountain so high

A D
I can pull out your pictures and look in your eyes

G D
I long for the day - when your old man comes home

It kills me to hear you say daddy don't go

G
You say daddy come home

D A D A D
You'll just have to wait - I hope when I get there that it won't be too late

G D
Daddy's at work now he's trying to pay bills

Ego's and bankrolls are part of my deal

D G D
I make some money - and I have some fun

A D
The tax man he come'th and I'm back to square one

G D
Don't worry bout your daddy - You girls be good

A
Give a kiss to your mother - I sure wish I could

G D
This life has it's moments - I'm not always sad

A d
Take care and I love you your rock and roll dad
