

Long White Line

Tab Chords And Lyrics

By Sturgill Simpson

Intro – E --- Capo on 2nd fret

E
I won't be around this old town - anymore for a long long time
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line
B7 E
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line
I woke up my baby was gone without her I don't need no home
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line
B7 E
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line

A E
Went to the bank to get my dough - I don't care where I go
B7
Gonna' push this rig 'til I push that girl - out of my mind
A E
If somebody wants to know - what's become of this so and so
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line
B7 E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line
A E
New York City, Old St. Joe, Albuquerque New Mexico
B7
This old rig is humming and rolling, she's doing fine
A E
If somebody wants to know - what's become of this so and so
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line
B7 E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line

Break – E-B7-E ..... B7-E

A E
New York City, Old St. Joe, Albuquerque New Mexico
B7
This old rig is humming and rolling, she's doing fine

A E
If somebody wants to know - what's become of this so and so
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line

B7 E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line

I won't be around this old town - anymore for a long long time
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line

B7 E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line