Intro - G-C-G-C

                  G          C          D          G
If you could see me now - The one who said - that she'd rather roam
C          D          G          C          D          G
The one who said - she'd rather be alone - If you could only see me now
                  C          D          G
If I could hold you now - Just for a moment if I could really make you mine
C          D          G          C          D          G
Just for a while - turn back the hands of time - If I could only hold you now

          C          D          G          C
I've been too long in the wind - Too long in the rain
Am          D          G
Taking any comfort that I can
C          D          G          C
Looking back and longing for - The freedom of my chains
Am          D          G          C
And lying in your loving arms again

          G          C          D          G
If you could hear me now - Singing somewhere through the lonely nights
C          D          G          C          D          G
Dreaming of the arms that held me tight - If you could only hear me now
