

Luckiest Man - The Wood Brothers

Capo 3rd fret

Intro - Bm - Gb - G - D

Bm Gb G D

My whole Saturday - and Sunday too

Bm Gb G D

I was thinking about - ways not to lose

Bm Gb G D

I lay down my weapons - is what I've done

Bm Gb G D

Too late to hide feet too soft to run

 E7 Gb G

But people say I'm the luckiest man ----- Yeah they say

 D G D

Running is useless - and fighting is foolish

G D G D

You're not gonna win but still you're the luckiest man - you're up against

G D G D

Too many horses - and mysterious forces

G D G D G

What you don't know is you are the luckiest man - You're the luckiest man ...

Bm - Gb - G - D

Bm Gb G D

I done talked to the devil - when he calls my name

Bm Gb G D

But sometimes when I'm losing it all seems the same

Bm Gb G D

And when I fall I'm back up again

Bm Gb G D

Just to slip on the same mistakes and slide right back in

E7 Gb G
But people say I'm the luckiest man ----- Yeah they say

D G D
Running is useless - and fighting is foolish
G D G D
You're not gonna win but still you're the luckiest man - you're up against
G D G D
Too many horses - and mysterious forces
G D G D G
What you don't know is you are the luckiest man - You're the luckiest man

Bm - Gb - G - D --- x2

Bm Gb G D
Try to keep my faith - and keep my mind
Bm Gb G D
Hate to lose either one when the whip cracks behind
Bm Gb G D
And I can't help but mourning just a little each night
Bm Gb G D
People say everything is gonna be all right
E7 Gb G
They say I'm the luckiest man ----- Yeah they say

D G D
Running is useless - and fighting is foolish
G D G D
You're not gonna win but still you're the luckiest man - you're up against
G D G D
Too many horses - and mysterious forces
G D G D G D
What you don't know is you are the luckiest man - You're the luckiest man
G Bm-Gb-G-D
You're the luckiest man