

Me And Jenny - The Tramps

Intro - G-Am-C-G-Am-C

G    Am    C
When I met Jenny I was living free and easy

G    Am    C
Waking up - when the sun was going down

G    Am    C
All I did was for me and my own pleasure

G    Am    C
I was the king and the bottle was my crown

Pick - G-Am-C

G    Am    C
I'm sick and tired of walking in the heather

G    Am    C
I'm sick and tired of camping in the bogs

G    Am    C
No matter where I go there's always lousy weather

G    Am    C
And in the tent at night I try to stay afloat

                                        F                          C                          D
And I'm fighting for my life

                                        G                          Am                          C                          D
'Cause I know that I'm stuck with you out here

                                        G                          Am                          c                          D
With your charm and your beauty - you know that I can't say no

G                          Am                          C                          D                          Am                          F    G
We've travelled far and near - and wherever you go you'll drag me there

Pick - G-Am-C

G Am C
 How did I ever meet a sporting girl like Jenny
 G Am C
 Who only wants to know how much I can endure
 G Am C
 I'm lying on the ground I'm crying out for mercy
 G Am C
 But then she tries to make me jog a few miles more
 F C D
 And I'm fighting for my life

G Am C D
 'Cause I know that I'm stuck with you out here
 G Am c D
 With your charm and your beauty - you know that I can't say no
 G Am C D Am F G
 We've travelled far and near - and wherever you go you'll drag me there

G Am C
 But then I found a solution to my problem
 G Am C
 And now she's sitting here skulling drinks with me
 G Am C
 'Cause when she slept at night I fed her with strong whisky
 G Am C
 And now she's lying here a drunkard just like me
 F C D
 And she's fighting for her life
