

My First Taste Of Texas

Chords And Lyrics

By Ed Bruce

Intro – Asus2-Em-D-A

D A
My first taste of Texas - had blue eyes and golden hair
E
Beneath the Tennessee silver moon
A A7
We found a feeling we could share
D A
And days made no difference, I'd been around and she was young
E
But my first taste of Texas
A
Still lingers in my heart and on my tongue

Her gentle heart was broken
D A
In a way that a tender lady shouldn't have to know

And mine was somewhere in between
D A
Something I should hold on to or let go
D
Her talking blue eyes told me
A
The story of the love she failed to find
And without conversation
E A
I suppose the lines on my face told her mine

D A
 My first taste of Texas - had blue eyes and golden hair
 E
 Beneath the Tennessee silver moon
 A A7
 We found a feeling we could share
 D A
 And days made no difference, I'd been around and she was young
 E
 But my first taste of Texas
 A
 Still lingers in my heart and on my tongue
 D Bm E A
 'Cause we're not done - we've only just begun
 D Bm e
 Begun to love - now the two of us are one
 D
 And days made no difference
 A
 We're still around and love's still young
 E
 And my first taste of Texas
 A
 Still lingers in my heart and on my tongue
