G

Clothes ain't in the closet shoes ain't under the bed

Bm

I should've believed her when she said what she said

C

"You'll never change - I know you never will"

Am

D7

I just sat there watching taillights rollin' over the hill

G

I called her mama and I called her best friend they said

Bm

"She called it quits, so boy don't call here again"

C

Up and down these streets- looking for her car

Am

D7

Tried to make it back home but ended up at the bar

G

Bm

She's gone (she's gone, so gone) - never coming back so gone (so gone, so gone)

C

The train went off the track and all the king's horses and all the king's men

Am

D7

Couldn't put me and my baby back together again

G

Bm

So long (she's gone, so gone) - that's the way it goes she's gone (so gone, so gone)

C

And everybody knows that I'm going crazy one night at a time

Am

D7

G Bm C Am D7

She's out of sight - and I'm out of my mind

G

Thought I saw you down in Memphis - walking in the rain I

Bm

Caught a glimpse of you in Dallas - getting off a plane

C

But it's all in my head - what else can I do

Am

D7

She ain't drinking anymore so I'm drinking for two
