

Pride Goes Before A Fall

Chords & Lyrics – Johnny Bush

Capo 3rd fret

Intro – C-G-Cm-G-D7-G-D

G D7 G G7

Might as well admit it - you don't really love me

C G G7

You've been acting funny - for so long

C G Em

It hurts to think that you think you're above me

A7 D D7

But it hurts more to admit - that I've been wrong

G D7 G G7

Need a bottle and a table - I can find those

C G G7

Maybe they will help speed up time's crazy crawl

C G Cm

Might as well go around and join the winos

G D7 G

Ain't it funny - how pride goes before a fall?

D7 G

Yes pride goes before a fall - I've got a feeling

A7 D7

That I'm gonna seek much more - than them all

G B7 C Am7

When we first met I lived way above the ceiling

G D7 G

Ain't it funny - how pride goes before a fall?

Intro – C-G-Cm-G-D7-G-D

G D7 G G7
Pour the wine - dim the lights and play the jukebox

C G G7
Dance with every Sue and Betty that's around

C G Em
Take her out - and try your luck - that's what's expected

A7 D7
What's the difference - it can't bring your honour down?

G D7 G G7
You are now a full fledged member - of the rat race

C G
Forget everything that's decent - have a ball

C G Cm
What's the difference if you die in this old bad place

G D7 G
Ain't it funny - how pride goes before a fall?

D7 G
Yes pride goes before a fall - I've got a feeling

A7 D7
That I'm gonna seek much more - than them all

G B7 C Am7
When we first met I lived way above the ceiling

G D7 G
Ain't it funny - how pride goes before a fall?

Break – C-G-Cm
