

Rodeo Clown

Bowen / Rogers

Intro - D-A-D-A

D G D
She told me it was over - with a suitcase in her hand

G A
When she said she'd met a cowboy - I was picturin' the Marlboro man

G D G D
Well, it wasn't her leavin' - hell, it wasn't even - the fact that she was runnin' around

G A D
What hurts me the most is she left me for a rodeo clown

G D
He coulda been a doctor - a lawyer, maybe, I'd understand

A D
Or a bull-ridin' belt-buckle - snuff-dippin' macho man

G D
But a guy named Darryl - hidin' in a barrel - red nose and a painted-on frown

A D A
Yeah, she didn't just leave me - she left me for a rodeo clown

D G D
Your friends are gonna ask me - but I'm just gonna tell 'em a lie

G A
I'll say she was gettin' too clingy - and you just had to say goodbye

G D G D
'Cause you'd get throttled - if they knew that Ronald McDonald was doin' her now

A D
Nah, she didn't just leave ya - she left you for a rodeo clown

G D
He coulda been a doctor - a lawyer, maybe, I'd understand

A D
Or a bull-ridin' belt-buckle - snuff-dippin' macho man

G D
But a guy named Darryl - hidin' in a barrel - red nose and a painted-on frown
A D A
Yeah, she didn't just leave you - she left you for a rodeo clown

Break — G-D-Bm-G-A

G D
If I'd known she was into - suspenders and big shoes
G D
Mighta coulda worked something out
A D
But she went to Vegas - and left me for a rodeo clown
A D A D
Yeah it hurts just to say it - she left you for a rodeo clown
