

Rosie

Chords And Lyrics

By Joan Armatrading

Intro – G-B-B-C-D-G

G

He has little red feet - His stockin's in his shoes

C

Lipstick and rouge on his face

G

He has his hair piled high - Has a red umbrella

C

D

G

And carries his head in the sky

Em

D

G

C

And I said Awe Rosie - don't you do that to the boys

Em

D

G

C

D

Don't you come on so willing - Don't you come on so strong

Em

C

D

Em

It can be so chillin' - When you act so willin'

C

D

G

And your warmth sets like the sun

G

He has a little baby brother - A big fat mama

C

His sister asks for dimes on the street

G

He doesn't feel it's a cover - In fact he knows

C

D

G

For sure he can please

G

I said he's out there right now - Running with the devil

C

Struttin' down the alley ways

G

C

With the nervous young hopeful - At his heel and know his satisfaction

D

G

won't drive him away

Ch

Break - Em-D-G-C .. Em-D-G-C .. C-D-Em (X3) ... Em-C-D-G---C-D-G

G
He's not looking for a friend - He's not looking for a lover

C
There in the crowded bar

G
He has rings on his fingers - He's there to tease

C D G
You know he only wants to take things too far

Em D G C
And I said Awe Rosie - don't you do that to the boys

Em D G C D
Don't you come on so willing - Don't you come on so strong

Em C D Em
It can be so chillin' - When you act so willin'

C D G
And your warmth sets like the sun

Em D G C
And I said Awe Rosie - don't you do that to the boys

Em D G C D
Don't you come on so willing - Don't you come on so strong

Em C D Em
It can be so chillin' - When you act so willin'

C D G C G
And your warmth sets like the sun