

Rosy And Grey

Chords & Lyrics - By Lowest Of The Lows

Intro – Em-C-G-Em-C-D-Em-C-D-G-Em-Am-D7 (x2) --- G-C-G-C

G C D
I want to take a streetcar downtown

G C D
Read Henry Miller and wander around

G C D
And drink some Guinness from a tin

G C D G
'Cause my UI cheque has just come in - Ah, where you been... Because

C D G D/Gb Em
Everything is coming up - rosy and grey

C D G D/Gb Em
Yeah the wind is cold but the smell of snow - warms me today

C D
And your smile is fine and it's just like mine

G D/Gb Em
And it won't go away, 'cause

C D G C
Everything is rosy and grey

G C D
You've been under my skin for more than eight years

G C D
It's been eight years of laughter and eight years of tears

G C D
And I don't know what the future can hold or will do - for me and you

G C D
But I'm a much better man for having known you
G

Yeah, you know that's true, because

C D G D/Gb Em
Everything is coming up - rosy and grey

C D G D/Gb Em
Yeah the wind is cold but the smell of snow - warms me today

C D
And your smile is fine and it's just like mine

G D/Gb Em
And it won't go away, 'cause

C D G
Everything is rosy and grey

Bm Em Am C
Well, I've been told that there's a sucker born every day

Am D Am D
Well I wonder who - yeah, I wonder who

Bm Em Am C
Maybe the one who doesn't realize there's a thousand shades of grey

Am D Am D
'Cause I know that's true yes I do -I know that's true yeah

Am D
I know that's true yeah - How about you?

G C D
Well, they're picking up trash and they're putting down roads

G C D
And they're brokering stocks, the class-struggle explodes

G C D
And I'll play this guitar just the best that I can

G C D G
Well, maybe I'm not and maybe I am - Who gives a damn? ---- because

C D G D/Gb Em

Everything is coming up - rosy and grey

C D G D/Gb Em

Yeah the wind is cold but the smell of snow - warms me today

C D

And your smile is fine and it's just like mine

G D/Gb Em

And it won't go away, 'cause

C D G C

Everything is rosy and grey

G C D

Well, I've kissed you in France and I've kissed you in Spain

G C D

And I've kissed you in places I'd better not name

G C D

And I've seen the sun go down on Sacre Coeur

G C D G

But I like it much better going down on you - yeah, you know that's true because

C D G D/Gb Em

Everything is coming up - rosy and grey

C D G D/Gb Em

Yeah the wind is cold but the smell of snow - warms us today

C D

And your smile is fine and it's just like mine

G D/Gb Em

And it won't go away, 'cause

C D G D/Gb Em

Everything is rosy now - Everything is rosy now

C D Em C-D-G-Em-C-D-G-C-G

Everything is rosy and grey
