

Satisfied Mind

Hal Ketchum

Intro - Bm-Em-C-D

G
Many more miles were behind him - than he had left to go
C
Closing in upon that last one - that we all must walk alone
G D
It's the one across - the end of the line
G
So we held on and we told stories - Of the good and bad and all
C
Of the power and the glory - and the lonely days that crawled
G D G
And we prayed Heaven - holds true love - and a satisfied mind
C D G
He said I ain't afraid of dying cause I know - there's something worse
C D
When you have to see your - reason for living go first - And you get left behind
G C
Some can't think of nothing better - than to live this life forever
G C
I never wanted no more than was mine
Bm Em C D G D
And to lay down someday - and go home with a satisfied mind
G
He said don't look into the darkness - if you want to see true black
C
Look into a morning's brightness - when love ain't coming back
G D
And you will find - there is a darkness that blinds
G
And don't think wealth is ever having - all you want all to yourself
C
It is found when you are giving - what you have to someone else
G D G
The only difference - in the rich and the poor - Is a satisfied mind

C D G
He said I ain't afraid of dying cause I know - there's something worse
C D
When you have to see your - reason for living go first - And you get left behind
G C
Some can't think of nothing better - than to live this life forever
G C
I never wanted no more than was mine
Bm Em C D G C
And to lay down someday - and go home with a satisfied mind

D
And one light began to fade as one grew brighter ... and

C D G
He said I ain't afraid of dying cause I know - there's something worse
C D
When you have to see your - reason for living go first - And you get left behind
G C
Some can't think of nothing better - than to live this life forever
G C
I never wanted no more than was mine
Bm Em C D
And to lay down someday - and go home
Bm Em C D C G
And to lay down someday - and go home with a satisfied mind