 It's Ladies' Day in Galway and we watched the ponies run
 Am C G Am C G
 Fifty pounds against the odds and came in six to one
 Am C G Am C G
 McSwiggin heard the race report, he invited us on in
 Am C G Am C G
 So we drank Catholic whiskey with all our newfound friends
 F E7
 They raised a glass to all of us - and we all toasted them

Am
 Well we kissed all the girls goodbye and gathered in our gear
 And when she walked me to the gate I swear I saw a tear
 But then she looked into my eyes I knew she felt my pain
 And only then I realized we were standing in the rain
 F E7
 So save our places at the pub and when the eyes are dry again
 Dm G Am C G Am C G
 We'll come back another day for seven nights in Ireland
