

She Rowed

Tab Chords And Lyrics

By Mungo Jerry

Intro – E-D-A

Well she said goodbye, to her man
She missed the ship even though she ran - And she rowed, ah didn't she row
Yeah she had to sail, across the sea
So she booked a trip on an old ferry - And she rowed, ah didn't she row
Well the captain saw the girl run onto the quay - But he still sailed away
There were no more boats for another week and she had no place to stay
Ah Ah

Break – A-D-A-E-D-A

Yeah her man had gone, she didn't know were
So she stole a dinghy from a yacht somewhere
And she rowed, ah didn't she row
The sea was rough, the weather was bad
But she kept on rowing 'till she got to France
And she rowed, ah didn't she row
Well she travelled so fast caused such a stir
The people came from miles around
To see the girl - who stole a boat when she missed her ship in town
