

Somewhere Down Below The Mason Dixon Line - Mary Chapin Carpenter

Capo 2nd fret for original key

Intro - G-E7-A7-D7-G-D7

G                            D7            G            D7            G
 Goodbye Northern Line - I'm on my way - Today's my busy day
     D7            G            A7            D7
 Grip's all packed and - I'm feeling gay - here's all I can say

G
 Drop me down in Caroline - Caroline that would be fine
                           E7    A7    D7    G
 Any place below the Dixon Line
 Alabama or Tennessee - Sure enough looks good to me
                           E7            A7            D7            G    G7
 I know I'll find some kinfolks there of mine

C                                    G
 Been away too long - up with the ice and snow
     E7                            A7                            D7
 So now I crave to travel back where the warm warm breezes blow
 G                                    D7                            G
 But from now on - when writing me
     E7    A7            D7            G
 If not there just forward please to somewhere down below the Dixon Line

Break - D-G-D-G-C-G-E7-A7-D7-G-D7

G                            D7            G                            D7            G
 It ain't no use - my telling you - these many things that I crave

D7 G A7 D7
If you will come - along with me - you'll know just why I say

G
Drop me down in Caroline - Caroline that would be fine

E7 A7 D7 G
Any place below the Dixon Line
Alabama or Tennessee - Sure enough looks good to me

E7 A7 D7 G G7
I know I'll find some kinfolks there of mine

C G
Been away too long - up with the ice and snow

E7 A7 D7
So now I crave to travel back where the warm warm breezes blow

G D7 G
But from now on - when writing me

E7 A7 D7 G
If not there just forward please to somewhere down below the Dixon Line

E7 A7 D7 G
I said somewhere down below the Dixon Line