

The Best You'll Do Tonight Chords & Lyrics – By Rodney Carrington

Intro – C-G6-A7-C-D-G

G C D G
When you came in this bar tonight - heads began to turn

C D G
One by one the men walked up - everyone got burned

Em A7
You were quiet a flirt in your mini-skirt

Em A7
And brought the boys down to their knees
C D C D G
But you waited to long to pick one out - now it's just you and me

D G D C D
I may not be a millionare and I ain't no movie-star

G D C D
But you played "hard to get" to long and the good one's left the bar

Em A7 Em A7
I know you had intentions of going home with "mr.right"

C D C D G
But it's last call for alcohol and I'm the best you'll do tonight

C D G
Hey, we can leave in separate cars and no one has to know

I hope you don't live too far from here - my gas tank's running low

Em A7

But if all goes well and I close the deal

Em A7

And your looking for a date next week

C D

You can come on back to the same old bar

C D G

And I'll be sittin' in the same old seat

D G D C D

I may not be a millionaire and I ain't no movie-star

G D C D

But you played "hard to get" too long and the good one's left the bar

Em A7 Em A7

I know you had intentions of going home with "mr.right"

C D C D G

But it's last call for alcohol and I'm the best you'll do tonight

Break – G-D-C-D ... G-D-C-D-G

Em A7

I know I ain't that handsome - and I drive a "beat-up" truck

C D C D G

I also know we better go - before you sober up

D G D C D

I may not be a millionaire and I ain't no movie-star
