 A7                          D              A7                                  Gb
All I want is 50 million dollars - And seal silk to protect me from the cold
       B7                                    G              Em
If  I only knew how stocks would go on Wall Street
      E7                                 A7
Id be living in a mansion built of gold

                                        D                 A7                                  Gb
If I only owned Pennsylvania Railroad - And if Tuesday Weld  - would only be my wife
   B7                                G          Em
If  I could only stay sixteen forever
            E7                   A7              D
Then I'd know that I'd be satisfied with life
```

Break – A7-D-A7-Gb-B7-G-Em-E7-A7 --- A7-D-A7-Gb-B7-G-E7-A7-D

A7                                      D            A                                  Gb
All I want is wheatgerm for my breakfast - A champagne fountain sizzling at my feet
            B7                          G      Em
While Rockefeller waiten on the table
          E7                                A7
And Lombardo's band playin' while I eat

                                       D                 A7                                  Gb
If I only owned Western Union cable - And if Racqel Welch would only be my wife
   B7                                G                  Em
If I could only stay sixteen forever and ever
            E7                   A7              D      A7      D   G   D
Then I'd know that I'd be satisfied with life
