

The Mirror

Tab Chords And Lyrics

By Jackson Taylor

Intro - G-C-Am-C-G

G C
How'd you get so cold? How'd you get so mean?
Am C G
Tell me how'd you come not to care for anyone or thing?
C
How'd you get so hard? Where'd you get those scars?
Am C G
Tell me how'd you become this person that you are?
D C G
Well I think someone can love you -- and I think someone can care
D C G
And I think that you've still got love left - to show and to share
Am C G
Cause you ain't near as ugly - as you believed
Am C G
And I'm no longer scared - of this mirror looking back at me
C
You've always got your head down - like you're caught in the wind
Am C G
Yeah you always look like you just lost your best friend
C
It ain't as dark as that - there's still sun that shines
Am C G
Yeah you got to - let it in boy I think it's time
Ch --- > Break D-C-G-D-C-G-Am-C-G-Am-C-G
D C G
She said I think I could love you -- She said I think I could care
D C G
She said I think you've still got love left - to show and to share
Am C G
Hell I ain't near as ugly - as I onced believed
Am C G
Now I'm no longer scared - of this mirror looking back at me
Am C G --> Intro
Yeah I'm no longer scared - of this mirror looking back at me
