

The Wine Song

The Youngbloods

Intro G7-C-G7

C7

Well some folks like whiskey - whiskey's mighty fine
Some folks like moonshine Lord they drink it all the time

F E7 Am

My daddy taught me, said, "Son - only way to keep your head in line

C7 A7 D7 G7 C

Drink-a that wine wine - wine keep your - head stoned all the time" -

G7

(That's what he said)

C7

Look at them luscious little bottles- sittin' up on the shelf
Red green and yellow Lord they are somethin' else, hmmm

F E7 Am

They mesmerize me - the way they sparkle and shine

C7 A7 D7 G7 C B7

Drink-a that wine wine - wine keep your - head stoned all the time

E

One snort of Ruby Port - really rings the bell

A7

Then a glass of Muscatel sets my head up well

D7

Then this sweetest bottle of cheapest sherry wine

G7

I say goodbye - to my mind

C7

While folks around me - insist on startin' wars

Fightin' and a-hollerin' - gettin' awful sore

F

E7

Am

Gotta take some business - I don't pay them no mind

C7

A7

D7

G7

C

Drink-a that wine wine, wine keep your - head stoned all the time

(Tell the truth)

Break - G7-C-G7-C-F-C-A7-D7-G7-C

E

One snort of Ruby Port - really rings the bell

A7

Then a glass of Muscatel sets my head up well

D7

Then this sweetest bottle of cheapest sherry wine

G7

I say goodbye - to my mind

C7

While folks around me - insist on startin' wars

Fightin' and a-hollerin' - gettin' awful sore

F

E7

Am

Gotta take some business - I don't pay them no mind

C7

A7

D7

G7

C

Drink-a that wine wine, wine keep your - head stoned all the time

A7

D7

G7

C

C7

Get out the bathtub, grandma, and take off your socks!