

Third Rock From The Sun

Joe Diffie

Capo 2nd fret = original key - Drop D Tuning

Intro - D

D

She walks into Smokey's, one hip at a time

Like a broken field runner slippin' through the lines

G

He likes the way she looks so he calls the little wife

D

Says "don't wait up for me, I'll be working late tonight"

A

Wife hangs up the phone bursts into tears

D

Calls her sister up and cries "get over here"

Sister tells her boyfriend "be back in a while"

Boyfriend wants a beer, the store is just a mile

G

He leaves the motor runnin', he'll only be a minute

D

His car drives away with teenagers in it

A

The driver tells his buddies "got one life to live"

D

They scream into the night, lets get it over with

G

D

Cause and effect, chain of events - All of the chaos makes perfect sense

G

When you're spinnin' round - Things come undone

D

G

D

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the Sun

The kid guns the gas, car starts to swerve

Heads for a semi-truck, jumps the curb

G

Truck hits a bigboy in the Shoney's parking lot

D

Flies through the air, takes out the bank clock

A

Clock strikes a light pole, transformer sparks

D

Lines go down, town goes dark

Waitress calls the cops, says she saw it all

Swears a giant alien has landed at the mall

G

Cops ring up the mayor says "there's panic in the street"

D

"We hate to wake you up but we can't find the chief"

A

Mayor says "use your head, if he ain't in his car

D

"He's hiding from his wife, down at Smokey's bar"

G

D

Cause and effect, chain of events - All of the chaos makes perfect sense

G

When you're spinnin' round - Things come undone

D

G

D

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the Sun

G

D

Cause and effect, chain of events - All of the chaos makes perfect sense

G

When you're spinnin' round - Things come undone

D

G

D

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the Sun

G

D

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the Sun