

Too Busy Being In Love Chords & Lyrics – By Doug Stone

Intro –D-Em-Gbm-G-A7

D Em Gbm

If I had taken the time - To write down a few lines

G A7 D

Every time that you crossed this heart of mine

Em Gbm

I'd put them all in a book - How much time would that have took

G A7 Bm

The words 'n years have a way of slipping back

Em A7 D Bm Em G A7sus A7

Oh no - Too bad - there goes - the chance that I had

D Bm G A7

I could have written a play - so sweet and so funny

D Bm G A7

Given old Mr. Shakespeare a run for his money

Bm Gbm G

Written the words to the prettiest tune

D G A7sus A7

That would never leave a dry eye in the room

Bm G A7 Bm

My only excuse for not doing enough

G D A7 Bm

Well I was too busy - being in love

G D A7 D Em Gbm G A7
Yes I was too busy - being in love

D Em Gbm
Brand new phrases appear - every time you are near

G A7 D
All these words you inspire after all these years

Em Gbm
But I never reached for a pen - Break the mood that I'm in

G A7 Bm
Before I knew it the words were gone again

Em A7 D Bm Em G A7sus A7
Oh no - Too bad - there goes - the chance that I had

D Bm G A7
I could have written a play - so sweet and so funny

D Bm G A7
Given old Mr. Shakespeare a run for his money

Bm Gbm G
Written the words to the prettiest tune

D G A7sus A7
That would never leave a dry eye in the room

Bm G A7 Bm
My only excuse for not doing enough

G D A7 Bm
Well I was too busy - being in love

G D A7 D G A7
Yes I was too busy - being in love

D Bm G A7
I could have written the part to make young lovers crazy

D Bm G A7
I could have written the movie for Hepburn and Tracy

Bm Gbm G
The beautiful song and it starts with your name

D G A7sus A7
Written my way into fortune and fame

Bm G A7 Bm
But I have no regrets for not doing enough

G D A7 Bm
Well I was too busy being in love

G D A7 D Em Gbm G A7 D
Yes I was too busy being in love