G Am
If the sun don't shine when you're feeling down - oh you gotta change it
C D G
You're not the only one who's ever been like a fool
Am
You're workin' hard just to get by - still you make it
C D G
All and all - you broke - all the rules

Am
Too little too late - Too little too late
D C G
Maybe it was fate-Too little too late

C G
Standing by your window this morning
C D
Thinking 'bout our love - that went all wrong
G C G
We had such a love - that should last forever
Am C D
But I guess - I'd wondered much too long

G Am
Too little too late, Too little too late
D C G
Maybe it was fate, Too little too late

C Cm G
Tell me what went wrong - when you said you needed someone

C Cm G
Tell me what went wrong -when you said you needed someone

D
You're my someone

Break ... G-Am-D-C-G

C G
My mind wanders back - to last September

C D
Your eyes cut a path - into my heart

G C G
We both know - the cards - are on the table

Am C D
A sad romance that slipped right out the door

G Am
Too little too late, Too little too late

D C G
Maybe it was fate, Too little too late

D C G
Maybe it was fate, Too little too late

D C G
Maybe it was fate, Too little too late
